Constitution

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Society shall be "THE INDIANA SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION."

ARTICLE II.

The Society shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III.

The purpose of this Society shall be to perpetuate the memory of the men, who, by their services or sacrifices during the War of the American Revolution, achieved the Independence of the American people ; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants ; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers ; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution ; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks ; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials ; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war ; to foster true patriotism ; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom ; and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble to the Constitution of our country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

ARTICLE IV.

Any male resident of Indiana, over the age of twenty-one years, shall be eligible for membership who is descended, on either the male or female line, from an ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence during the War of the Revolution ; whether as a military or naval officer, soldier or sailor, or as an official or recognized subordinate in the service of any one of the thirteen original colonies or states, or of the national government, representing those colonies or states. No person lacking in these qualifications shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

ARTICLE V.

The officers of the Society shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Registrar and Treasurer, who shall constitute the Board of Managers, a Delegate at Large and a Delegate to the National Society for each one hundred or fraction of one hundred exceeding fifty members: Provided, That the Society shall always be entitled to at least one Delegate at Large and one Delegate. The Society or its Board of Managers may also select honorary Vice-Presidents.

ARTICLE VI.

This Constitution may be altered, amended or repealed by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Society present, at a regular meeting of the Society or at a special meeting called for that purpose, after proper notice has been given of such special meeting.

By-Laws

SECTION 1. Members shall be elected as follows : Candidates may send their names and documents, or other proofs of qualification for membership, to the Secretary ; and upon a favorable consideration by the Board of Managers, shall upon payment of the membership fee and first annual dues thereupon become members of the Society.

SEC. 2. The initiation fee shall be two dollars and the annual dues two dollars. The payment at one time of fifty dollars shall constitute a life member, and the member so paying shall be exempt from the payment of annual dues.

SEC. 3. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held on the 25th day of February, the anniversary of the capture of Ft. Sackville, at Vincennes, Indiana, and in each and every year thereafter, at which a general election of officers by ballot shall take place, except when such date shall fall on Sunday, in which event the meeting shall be held on the following day, unless otherwise set by the Board of Managers upon due notice to the members. In such election, a majority of the ballots cast for any officer shall constitute a choice.

SEC. 4. At all meetings of the Society, five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 5. The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, or, in their absence, a chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings. He shall preserve order and shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election and of such other matters as he may be directed by the Society. He shall have charge of the seal, certificate of incorporation, by-laws and records of the Society. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President or Vice-President presiding, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society ; and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolutions, and proceedings of the Society affecting them or pertaining to their respective duties.

SEC. 7. The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. They shall be deposited in some bank or savings institution in this State, to the credit of THE INDIANA SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and shall be drawn thence on the checks of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or by the Board of Managers. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society, when a committee may be appointed to audit his accounts.

SEC. 8. If, from the annual report of the Treasurer, there shall appear to be a balance against the Treasurer, no appropriation of money shall be made for any object but the necessary current expenses of the Society until such balance shall be paid.

SEC. 9. The Registrar shall keep a roll of members ; and in his hands shall be lodged all the proofs of membership qualification, and all the historical and geographical papers, manuscript or other, of which the Society may become possessed ; and under the direction of such executive committee of the Board of Managers, shall, for adequate compensation, keep copy of such similar documents as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society.

SEC. 10. The Board of Managers shall judge of the qualifications of the candidates for admission to the Society and elect the same, and shall have charge of all the special meetings of the Society, and shall, through the Secretary, call special meetings at any time, upon the written request of five members of the Society, and at such other times as they see fit.

They shall recommend plans for promoting the objects of the Society, shall digest and prepare business and shall authorize the disbursement and expenditure of unappropriated money in the treasury for the payment of current expenses of the Society. They shall act as the Trustees of the Society and generally superintend the interests of the same, and execute all such duties as may be committed to them.

At all meetings of the Board of Managers three shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

LOCAL CHAPTERS.

SEC. 11. Local chapters may be organized in any county of Indiana upon the application in writing to the Board of Managers of ten members of the Indiana Society, whose qualification for membership shall have been duly approved by the National Society. The selection of its officers and its mode of government shall be under the control and direction of such local chapter free of any outside supervision so long as the conduct of its affairs is in conformity with the Constitution and By-Laws of the National and State Society, of which it shall be a part.

SEC. 12. No amendment of the By-Laws shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting of the Society.

Order of Business

At all annual meetings of this Society, the following order of business shall be observed, viz. :

1. Opening exercises.
2. Calling roll of officers and members.
3. Reading minutes of last meeting.
4. Reports of officers : President, Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, Historian, Board of Managers. Other official reports.
